 TOD STATE Approved For Relpase 2002/10/16 : CIA-RDP68R00530A000100090046-8-7	1R-1.4
	25X
	25X
Copy 3
MEMORANDUM FOR CIA MEMBER UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD
THROUGH : Deputy Director (Intelligence) Perc
SUBJECT : Photographic Reconnsissance Coverage of South China, 22 June - 28 June 1965
REPERENCE : USIB-D-41.18/23 (COMOR-D-25/174), 29 June 1965
1. This is a briefing memorandum on the subject report wis scheduled for Board noting by 1 July 1965. A recommendation contained in paragraph 4.
2. U-2's and BLUE SPRINGS drones have remained on consist to cover targets in South Chins during the past week. I	icwever, illents have not been boskible because of soverse westder. Il	F. F. T. T. C. C.
flights have not been possible because of adverse weather. For	25
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted.	25 in the 25
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the same of the change in the basic military posture in the change in the chang	25 ts in the ent 25 No major 25)
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. We significantly changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in thosever, have been observed from any source.	25 ts in the ent 25 No major 25)
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the same of the change in the basic military posture in the change in the chang	25 ts in the ent 25 No major 25)
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25 ts in the ent 25 No major 25)
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25 in the ent 25 No major 25 he area.
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25 in the ent 25 No major 25 he area.
3. Since I June, three of the 34 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No signification changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in thosever, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report.	25 in the ent 25 No major 25 he area.
3. Since I June, three of the 34 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in thosever, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report. DDI/CGS/Recce: Distribution:	25 ts in the ant 25 No major 25 the area.
3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. Me significated changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report. DDI/CGS/Recce: Distribution: Copy #1 - CIA Member USIB #2 - DD/I	25 ts in the ent 25 No major 25 the area, 25
3. Since I June, three of the 34 highest priority target area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. deployments which would change the basic military posture in thosever, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report. DDI/CGS/Recce: Distribution: Copy #1 - CIA Member USIB	25 ts in the ant 25 No major 25 the area.